
BASIC SERVICES

$2,000

A basic service charge include, but is not limited to, staff to respond to initial request for service; arrangement conference with family or responsible party; preparation and filing of necessary certificates and permits; placement of obituary notices; funeral planning arrangements; and coordination of service with cemetery, crematory, vault companies; sheltering human remains until time of service and others as required. Also included in this charge are overhead expenses relative to the facility such as insurance, maintenance and utility expenses, secretarial and administrative costs, and equipment and inventory expenses.

EMBALMING

$800

Except in certain special cases, embalming is not required by law. Embalming may be necessary, however, if you select certain funeral arrangements, such as a funeral with viewing. If you do not want embalming, you usually have the right to choose an arrangement that does not require you to pay for it, such as direct cremation or immediate burial.

TRANSFER REMAINS

$325

This is the typical set fee within a designated radius of the funeral home (i.e. 30 mile radius) but an additional fee per mile ($4.00 per loaded mile) outside of the designated radius may be assessed.

FUNERAL EXPENSES

The Federal Trade Commission regulates funeral homes and has established a series of rules called

The Funeral Rule. The Funeral Rule protects consumers' right to purchase funeral goods and services separately. You do not have to accept a package that includes items you do not want.

The Funeral Rule requires every funeral home to have a General Price List. It is a written, itemized price list of all the items and services the funeral home offers. The General Price List will be your guide to comparing funeral costs in your area.
